

SI9AM Welcome Guest Operators!

SI9AM is a perfect site for a vacation combined with amateur radio and tourism. A fully equipped Amateur Radio station with a unique callsign. Here You can create and experience a pileup from the DX-side. Try SI9AM !

SI9AM is sited right next to the exotic Thai pavillion in Utanede, Ragunda. A scenic location at the banks of Indalsälven river. We welcome guest operators who just want to talk on the radio or compete. Find more on www.si9am.se

The station is located on Holmstagården, a nice hostel with a restaurant and a number of small but nice bedrooms. A group of 10-20 persons will be no problem. Check website www.utanede.nu

Aside from the amatuerradio, there is a number of exiting activities in the area.

The village, the people and the hydropower. Experience the 1930s Krångede. See what it was to live and work in Krångede during that time. There is also a cafeteria, boat rental and sale of fishing licenses. Get more information at <http://ragundamuseiland.se/>

For reservation and information, please contact SM3CVM, Lars, phone +4663-850 09 or +4670-343 0627, e-mail sm3cvm@ssa.se or SM3FJF, Jörgen, phone +4660 313 25 or +4670-394 1745, e-mail sm3fjf@ssa.se

...or meet our powerful friend Cesar. He lives only 12 kilometer from our QTH in Utanede. Find out more on

<http://hem.bredband.net/moosery/>

The Dead (water)falls has an exciting and interesting story to tell. In less than four hours, the Ragundalake lost all its water. The rapids dried out and got silent - and is now known as the Dead fall. And it's only a stone's throw away from the radiostation. Look at

<http://www.ragunda.se/sprak/inenglish/whattodo/deadfalls.4.1493102fae6c674fc7fff1083.html>

If you like hiking i grand nature, or enjoy fishing in rich waters, just help yourselves... Here you can find what ever you want. Why not a visit at Trolltown? Check it out at www.lidenbygden.com/troll/

Book a visit! Groups of radioamateurs as well as individuals are welcome.